

Fish Consumption Advisory

Per Georgia Environmental Protection Department:

Due to PCB contamination in the South River, consumption of Largemouth Bass should be limited to no more than 1 meal per week, or a total of one 4–8 ounce serving per week.

PCBs are considered to have negative health effects in humans, including cancer.

For more information about PCBs in your area streams visit: <http://www.co.henry.ga.us/stormwater/>

Or call: 770-288-7246