Please read these instructions and each individual form very carefully. Missing or misreading a word could cause you to make serious errors in your case, putting your rights and the direction of your divorce case in jeopardy.

INTRODUCTION

In the State of Georgia, if you want to end your marriage, you must file a Petition for Divorce in the Superior Court. There are two options available to you for filing a divorce case: (1) you can hire a lawyer who will prepare your paperwork and represent you in court, or (2) you can use the forms included in this packet and represent yourself in court. After a court grants your divorce and issues a Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce, you will be legally able to remarry.

It is advisable to speak with a lawyer before filing any action with the Court; this divorce is no exception to that rule. There are often more issues involved in a divorce than you might realize if you fail to get legal advice. However, you may want to review the forms and instructions in this packet before you talk to a lawyer, so that you will be able to make the best use of your time with the lawyer.

Dissolution of a marriage can be a very complicated process. If documents are not completed, signed, notarized and filed as prescribed by law, then the divorce pleadings are not in compliance with the law, which means that a judge cannot grant your request for divorce, and may dismiss your case.

If you want a court to grant your divorce, you must follow the law and you must complete each and every paragraph that applies to your case (but not any paragraph that does not apply to your case).

Please read and complete the steps listed in this packet in order to finalize, file, and serve your petition for divorce. Be aware that answering questions about legal procedure (such as what the law requires you to do, how to prove your case, how to respond to requests by the opposing party or how to get that party to respond to your requests, how to comply with a law or a court order, etc.) constitutes “giving legal advice.” Georgia law strictly forbids anyone employed by the Clerk’s office, Sheriff’s office, judge’s chambers, or ADR office from answering such questions. When you choose to represent yourself, it is your responsibility to research the law yourself and figure out what the law requires you to do and how you should proceed. The fact that you are not an attorney is not an excuse or an exception to this requirement.

YOU MAY ESPECIALLY NEED AN ATTORNEY IF:

- The case is contested OR an attorney represents your spouse.
- You or your children are victims of family violence against you by your spouse.
- You are unable to locate your spouse for purposes of having him/her served with this action.
- You and/or your spouse have a house, pension, business, or large amount of property or income to be divided.
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from your spouse.

Whether your case is contested or uncontested, you should speak with a lawyer before signing a Settlement Agreement or filing any other documents with the Court.

The following are detailed instructions on how to complete and file this Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children, as well as some of the related documents. (Read these instructions carefully and more than once, if necessary).

STEP 1: PETITION FOR DIVORCE

- Caption (Heading):

Fill in your full name as the Petitioner and your spouse's full name as the Respondent (do not use initials or nicknames). Leave the Civil Action Case Number blank. The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your Petition in the Clerk's Office. After completing the heading, write your full name again in the space provided just before Paragraph 1.

- Paragraph 1: Subject Matter Jurisdiction

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you have been a resident of the State of Georgia for at least six (6) months immediately before filing your Petition for Divorce. (It is not good enough if you used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and have returned more recently than six months ago.)

- (b) Check box(b) if you are not a resident of the State of Georgia, but your spouse has been living in Georgia for at least the past six (6) months. (It is not good enough if your spouse used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and has returned more recently than six months ago.)

Note: If you live in Georgia, but not lived here for a full six months, but your spouse has been living here for at least the past six months, you may still use this Petition and file in Georgia. If this is the case, you should check box(b) and cross out the first eleven words (“I am not a resident of the State of Georgia, but...”), so that the sentence is accurate.

• Paragraph 2: Venue

The issue of venue in a divorce action is very complicated. It is also very important since the divorce may be defective if venue is not addressed properly. Read these instructions very carefully. If your situation does not seem to fit any of the choices exactly, you should talk to a lawyer. You may not be able to file your case in Henry County or you may need to make particular changes to this form.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if the Respondent currently resides in Henry County.
- (b) Check box(b) if all of the following are true:
- (1) The Respondent is not a resident of Henry County, but resides in Georgia;
 - (2) The two of you lived together in Henry County at the time you separated;
 - (3) You still live in Henry County; and
 - (4) The Respondent has moved out of Henry County only within the past six (6) months prior to you filing this Petition for Divorce.
- (c) Check box (c) if the Respondent does not live Henry County and did not live with you in Henry County at your time of separation, but currently resides in Georgia.
- (d) Check box (d) if you live in Henry County and the Respondent does not live in Georgia. Then check number (1), (2), or (3) in the same paragraph.

Check only one (1) box. (If both 1 and 3, or 2 and 3 apply, check only 3.)

- (1) Check box 1 if the Respondent was a resident of Henry County, but currently resides in another state (enter the name of the state in the space provided), and the Respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Court under Georgia’s Long Arm Statute. (See O.C.G.A. § 9-10-91[5]).
 - (2) Check box 2 if the Respondent has never resided in the State of Georgia and currently resides in another state. Enter the name of the state in the space provided.
 - (3) Check box 3 if the Respondent does not live in Georgia, but has acknowledged service of process and has consented to the jurisdiction of the Court. If you check this box, you must file the original signed and notarized form entitled Acknowledgment of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case (this is one form) with this Petition.
- (e) Check box (e) if you reside in Henry County, but you do not know where the Respondent lives. You must prove to the Court that you have tried to locate the Respondent and cannot find him or her. You must also file the original signed and notarized Affidavit of Due Diligence with this Petition. In that Affidavit, you will explain to the Court about the steps you took to try to find the Respondent.

Note: In this situation, you will have to serve the Respondent by publication. (See Paragraph 3-c below). That means you will not be able to get certain kinds of relief as part of the divorce, such as child support and alimony. However, if the Respondent later acknowledges service, gets served by the Sheriff, or files an Answer to the divorce, then your case will not be limited by the restrictions that apply to publication cases.

- Paragraph 3: Service of Process

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if the Respondent has acknowledged Service of Process. If you check this box, you must also file the original signed and notarized Acknowledgment of Service.
- (b) Check box(b) if you want the Sheriff’s Department to serve the Respondent with this Petition and the other court papers. You must fill in the address where the Respondent should be served and circle whether this is a home or work address.
 - (1) Check box b-1 if the Respondent lives outside of Henry County and you want the Sheriff’s Department to serve him or her. If you check this box, you must inform the Clerk’s Office (when you file the case) that the other party must be served by “second original.” The clerk will stamp the service copy of your papers as a “second original.”
- (c) Check box (c) if you do not know where the Respondent lives and you are serving him or her by publication. Write the Respondent’s last known address on the lines provided. You must also file the original signed and notarized Affidavit of Due Diligence with this Petition. In that Affidavit, you will explain to the Court about the steps you took to try to find the Respondent. You will have to wait for the judge to sign an order approving of service by publication before you can have the Notice published.

To find more information about Service of Process, read Step 7 of these instructions.

- Paragraph 4: Date of Marriage

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent were married with a license and a ceremony, such as one by a clergyman or by a judge at the courthouse. Write the date of the marriage in the space provided.
- (b) Check box(b) if you and the Respondent did not have a marriage license and a ceremony, but you believe you have established a common law marriage. Under Georgia law, this generally means that you and the Respondent lived together and held yourselves out as husband and wife before January 1, 1997. Write the date you began your common law marriage in the space provided.

- Paragraph 5: Date of Separation

In the space provided, write the date that you and the Respondent last separated and remained separated up to the present time. Provide only one date. If you and the Respondent have separated, gotten back together, and then separated again, use the date of the most recent separation.

- Paragraph 6: Settlement Agreement

Check this box only if you and the Respondent have signed a Settlement Agreement telling the Court the arrangements you have agreed upon how you will divide your joint and marital property and debts and how you will resolve any other issues between the two of you. The parties must agree voluntarily and this document must be signed by both parties in front of a notary public.

• Paragraph 7: Minor Children

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent do not have any minor children together (by birth or adoption).
- (b) Check box(b) if you and the Respondent have minor children together. STOP HERE. If you and the Respondent have minor children together, you must use a different petition form, entitled “Petition for Divorce With Minor Children.”

• Paragraph 8: Alimony

Note: If you want alimony, but do not have proof of the Respondent’s income, you should see a lawyer. There are procedures called “discovery” that may be used to try to determine the income. The key issue in deciding alimony is the income of both parties.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you are financially dependent on the Respondent and want the Court to order the Respondent to pay alimony for your support.
- (b) Check box(b) if you are not asking the Court to order alimony payments for your support.
- (c) Check box (c) if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 2-e.)

• Paragraph 9: Marital Property

Notes:

- All property that was acquired by either party during the marriage is considered marital property (no matter whose name is on the title), except for gifts and inherited property.
- If the marital home or other real estate is titled in the Respondent’s name alone (or you are not sure whose name is on the property deed), you must file a separate document called a Notice of Lis Pendens. If you do not file a Lis Pendens, and the property is sold before the divorce becomes final, you will not be able to get the home (or a share of it) as part of the divorce because it will be gone. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If the marital home belonged to one of the parties before the marriage, it still may be claimed as marital property if its value has increased (or the mortgage has decreased) during the marriage. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you and/or your spouse owned or established a business, separately or together, either during the marriage or before the marriage and continuing into the marriage, the business in whole or in part may also be considered marital property. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you or the Respondent has rights to a pension or retirement funds/assets/accounts that have built up during the marriage, this also may be considered marital property. Figuring out the true value (as opposed to the face value) of a pension or other retirement funds (and writing the proper QDRO order if it is distributed in the divorce) is very complicated. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you think the Respondent may have acquired assets during the marriage that are unknown to you, the law has procedures to use (called “discovery”) to try to find out about those assets. If it is important to you to try to learn more about the Respondent’s assets, you should see a lawyer.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent have already divided your marital property and you are both satisfied with the division.
- (b) Check box(b) if you and the Respondent did not acquire any property during your marriage (or if the property is already gone).
- (c) Check box (c) if you and the Respondent did acquire property during your marriage and you are asking for a fair division of that property.

Note: If you check this box, you must provide the Court with information about the property that you and the Respondent have acquired at any time during the marriage. Use the spaces provided under box (c) to describe the property and check each box that applies. Use additional paper if necessary, and attach the paper to this Petition, between pages 8 and 9. Carefully read the Notes under the “Marital Property” section at the beginning of the instructions for Paragraph 21.

- (d) Check box (d) if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 2-e.)

- Paragraph 10: Joint or Marital Debts

Note: Creditors are not parties in your divorce cases. Consequently, the Court cannot take away creditors’ rights in the divorce. This means that the Court cannot prevent creditors from exercising their legal right to collect from any person who is liable for a particular debt, even if you are not in possession of the thing(s) for which the debt was incurred but you are listed as a debtor, such as a car that your spouse has always driven or the former marital home that your spouse still lives in but you have not lived in for months or years. However, the Court can enter an order in the divorce case that says one party or the other must pay a particular marital debt. If the responsible party does not pay as ordered, s/he may be held in contempt.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box (a) if you and the Respondent do not have any joint or marital debts.
- (b) Check box (b) if you and the Respondent have joint or marital debts. In the spaces provided, list each creditor (for example, Visa, MasterCard, etc.), the balance owed, and who you believe should pay each debt. Use additional paper if necessary, and attach it to the Petition between pages 9 and 10.
- (c) Check box (c) if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 2-e.)

- Paragraph 11: Restraining Order Where Violence Has Occurred

Do not check this box if there has not been any history of violent acts against you by the Respondent.

Check this box only if there has been a history of physical violence by the Respondent toward you, and you are afraid that the Respondent will continue the violent acts or harassment against you.

The restraining order in a divorce is not enforceable by warrantless arrest. It can only be enforced by a Motion for Contempt.

Note: If there has been recent physical violence (or past physical violence plus a recent threat to renew that violence), you should consider filing a Temporary Protective Order (TPO) immediately. A TPO provides much stronger and faster protection than a restraining order in a divorce case. There is no charge for filing a TPO petition, and free help is available for filing one. Contact Haven House at 770-954-9229.

- Paragraph 12: Restore Former Name

Check this box only if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name. On the space provided, write the full name you want to have restored. DO NOT USE INITIALS OR NICKNAMES.

Note: This is not a name change action and cannot be used for anyone except the wife or husband in this divorce action.

- Paragraph 13: Grounds for Divorce

Check only the boxes that you can prove in court if your case goes to trial.

- (a) Check box (a) if there is no hope that you and the Respondent can save this marriage. This is the language for grounds in most cases, and may be the only grounds you choose. It is the basis for granting a divorce when fault is not proven. It can and should be used as a “back-up” if you check other grounds based on some kind of fault but fail to prove the fault to the judge’s satisfaction at court.
- (b) Check box (b) if the Respondent has committed acts of cruelty against you. On the spaces provided, you must tell the Court what cruel acts the Respondent did to you.
- (c) Check box (c) if the Respondent had sexual relations with someone else while you have been married to each other.
- (d) Check box (d) if the Respondent left you intentionally and has not come back for at least a year.
- (e) Check box (e) if you can prove and want to state other grounds for divorce. You must research the law under O.C.G.A. § 19-5-3, and tell the Court what other grounds for divorce you are asserting. Use the space provided or attach additional paper between pages 10 and 11.

- Final Paragraph: Request for Relief

Check only the boxes that apply.

- (a) Check box (a) if you want the Court to grant you a total divorce from the Respondent. Make sure you have also completed Paragraph 25. You must check this box if you want a divorce! The Court cannot and will not grant you a divorce unless this box is checked.
- (b) Check box (b) if you want the Settlement Agreement signed by you and the Respondent to be incorporated in the Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. Make sure you have also completed Paragraph 6 and that both parties have signed the Settlement Agreement in front of a notary public.
- (c) Check box (c) if you want the Court to order the Respondent to pay alimony for your support. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 8.
- (d) Check box (d) if you want the Court to divide the marital property as described in Paragraph 9. Make sure you have correctly and completely filled out Paragraph 9, after carefully reading the notes at the beginning of the instructions for that paragraph.

- (e) Check box (e) if you want the Court to assign responsibility for payments of joint or marital debts as described in Paragraph 10. Make sure you have correctly and completely filled out Paragraph 10, after carefully reading the notes at the beginning of the instructions for that paragraph.
- (f) Check box (f) if you want the Court to temporarily and permanently restrain the Respondent from harassing you or committing any further acts of violence toward you. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 11.
- (g) Check box (g) if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name according to Paragraph 12. Make sure you have completed that paragraph and have not used any initials or nicknames.
- (h) Check box (h) if you want the Court to schedule a Rule Nisi (hearing on temporary issues). Complete a Rule Nisi form for the Court to complete and sign. See additional information about this in Step 8 below.
- (i) Check box (i) as a “back-up” to allow for any other relief the Court finds appropriate in your case.

- Signature and Date

To finish the Petition form, add the date on which you are signing it, sign your name in the space provided on the last page, and write your address and a daytime telephone number where the Court staff could reach you if necessary. However, if you are living in a shelter for victims of family violence, do not list the address of the shelter. Instead, you should write another address where you can be sure that you will receive any information that is mailed to you by the Court or the Respondent.

STEP 2: VERIFICATION FORM

The Verification form must be filled out with the Petition for Divorce. In the caption, insert your name as the Petitioner and your spouse’s name as the Respondent. Do not fill in the Civil Action Case Number. The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your case in the Clerk’s office. Insert your name in the space underneath the word “Verification,” which is the title of this document. In the next space, insert the title of the document you are verifying as true, which is “Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children.”

Before you sign this Verification, remember that you will be swearing under oath that the information you have provided in the Petition for Divorce is true. You should re-read the Petition one more time, from start to finish, to make sure it is all true. Then take the Petition and this Verification to a notary public. (See pages 2 and 3 above to find out the other forms you will need to have notarized.) Sign your name in front of the notary public in the space provided, and check the box to indicate that you are the Petitioner. The notary must complete the rest of the Verification form after you sign it under oath. The staff at the Henry County Superior Court Clerk’s Office can notarize this document for free, but you must have proper identification such as a driver’s license or passport.

STEP 3: OTHER DOCUMENTS & COPIES

To start your divorce case, you must complete and file several other forms in addition to the Petition and Verification. Some of these forms need to be signed in front of a notary public. (The forms you will need are listed on pages 2 and 3 of these instructions.)

After you have finished filling out all of the required papers to start your case, and all have been signed (in front of a notary public where required), make two (2) complete sets of copies of all papers that you are going to file. Then, separate the copies into three packets: (1) all of the originals to be filed with the Clerk of Court, (2) one set of copies for your spouse (called the “service copy”), and (3) one set of copies for you to keep for your own records.

STEP 4: FEES

Henry County Superior Court

The court filing fee for a divorce action may be obtained from the Superior Court Clerk's Office. You should contact someone in that office to determine what forms of payment are acceptable. The phone number to the Henry County Superior Court Clerk's Office is 770-288-8022

In addition, there is a service fee of $50.00, if the Henry County Sheriff's Department is going to serve this action. Please note that this fee is subject to change.

Note: If you have a low income and feel that you cannot afford to pay these fees, you can ask the Court to waive the court filing fee and service fee. To do this, you should file the Poverty Affidavit and Order on Poverty Affidavit forms along with your other forms that you have taken to the Clerk's Office. You should submit pay stubs for the last three months or unemployment check statements for the last three months. A judge must sign the Order approving the Poverty Affidavit, before the filing of your case can be completed by the Clerk's Office staff. If the judge signs the order of approval, both the filing fee and the service fee are waived. If the judge does not approve your Poverty Affidavit, you must pay all fees before you case will proceed.

If you are serving the Respondent by publication (because you do not know where she or he can be found for service), there is a publication fee charged by the newspaper that publishes the notice. This fee will have to be paid separately from the Clerk's Office fees. Even if the judge approves your Poverty Affidavit, you will have to pay this fee of $80.00 (subject to change) to the Daily Herald.

STEP 5: FILING

After you have completed, signed (in front of a notary, where applicable), copied, and sorted all of your paper work, you are ready to file your case. Take all three (3) sets of forms (with the Court's set on top), along with your cash or money orders to pay the fees, to the Henry County Superior Court Clerk's Office. Give all three sets of documents to the clerk.

Tell the clerk if there have ever been cases about you in this court so that the case can be assigned to the proper judge. If your paperwork is complete, the clerk will keep the originals for the Court's file. Once your fees have been paid or a Poverty Affidavit has been approved by the judge, the clerk will write the case number on the top of the set of your copies, stamp them, and return them to you. Keep these copies for your records. Your divorce case has now been filed, but you still need to arrange for service (unless you have filed an Acknowledgment of Service). You should use the third set of copies for service. In Henry County, you may arrange for Sheriff's service while you are in the Clerk of Court's office instead of having to make a separate trip to the Sheriff's office.

STEP 6: SERVICE

Service is the required formal process of notifying the Respondent that the divorce action has been filed. There are three ways for service to be completed: (1) the Respondent signs an Acknowledgment of Service, (2) service by the Sheriff's Department or other approved process server, or (3) by publication.

- Service by Acknowledgement of Service

This is the easiest and least expensive method, but only if the Respondent is cooperative and willing to sign an Acknowledgment of Service form in front of a notary public. You cannot sign for the Respondent, and you cannot sign as the notary witnessing the Respondent's signature, nor is it good enough for the Respondent to sign without the signature being witnessed by a notary public.

There are two different Acknowledgment of Service forms available from the ADR Office.

- (1) The Acknowledgment of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case is appropriate if you and the Respondent have reached an agreement and will be signing a Settlement Agreement. This form is best because it includes the consent to the present case in the same form with the acknowledgement, so you are saved a step later.

- (2) The plain Acknowledgment of Service form is appropriate if you and the Respondent have not reached a complete agreement yet, but the Respondent is willing to acknowledge service. This saves the Respondent the possible embarrassment or inconvenience of being served by the deputy sheriff, but does not give up the Respondent's right to file an Answer and have a trial if an agreement is not reached.

To use this method of service, you need to complete the appropriate form and have the Respondent sign it in front of a notary public. You should then file it with your other papers, as explained in Steps 3, 4, and 5 above.

- Service by Sheriff's Department

This is the usual way for service to be completed. It is sometimes called "Personal Service," which means that the deputy sheriff or other court-approved process server hands the papers to the Respondent in person. The forms provided by the Superior Court Clerk's Office do not include the special motion and order required to have a special process server appointed. Therefore, if the Respondent will not sign an acknowledgement, and you know an address where the Respondent can be served, you should make arrangements for the Sheriff's Department to serve the papers.

If the Respondent can be served in Henry County, then the Henry County Sheriff's Department can serve the papers. You may pay the service fee at the Clerk's Office when you file the case, and leave the service copy of the papers with the clerk. The clerk will forward your payment and legal documents to the Sheriff's Department for service.

If the Respondent must be served in another county or state, the Henry County Sheriff's Department cannot serve the papers. You will need to arrange for service directly with the Sheriff's Department of the proper county. You should find out the amount of the fee, and take or send it to the proper Sheriff's Department, along with the service copy of the papers.

Whether you have service completed by the Henry County Sheriff's Department or some other Sheriff's Department, you should make sure the service copy includes the Sheriff's Entry of Service form. After the Sheriff's Department completes service, they will send the white and yellow copies to the Clerk's Office, which will then send the yellow copy to you (if you have properly filled out the form).

- Service by Publication

This is a method of last resort. If you can find the Respondent, you must use one of the other two previously described methods of service. If you do not know where the Respondent lives or works, and you cannot find that information out, this is your only choice of service method. You must prove to the Court that you have tried to locate the Respondent and cannot find him/her or that the Respondent is avoiding service.

Using service by publication places special limitations on your divorce case, because the Court will not have "personal jurisdiction" over the Respondent. You will not be able to get certain kinds of relief, such as alimony, as part of the divorce. However, if the Respondent later acknowledges service, gets served by the sheriff, or files an Answer to the divorce, then your case will no longer be limited by the restrictions that apply to publication cases.

To serve by publication, you will need to prepare and file the following three (3) forms:

- Affidavit of Diligent Search*
- Notice of Publication, and*
- Order of Publication, Return of Service, and Order Perfecting Service*

In the Affidavit of Due Diligence, you will explain to the Court the steps you took to try to find the Respondent. You must make reasonable effort to find the Respondent before you fill out this form, which is available through the ADR Office and has its own set of instructions. The other two forms are available through the Clerk's Office.

If you know you must use service by publication when you prepare your Petition for Divorce, then you should prepare all three above listed forms at that time. However, if you have already filed your divorce case, and have tried to complete service by a different method, you can still request the Court's permission to serve by publication.

After you file the forms and if the Court grants permission, the judge will then sign an Order of Publication. You will need to pay the cost of publication ($80.00, subject to change) at the Clerk's Office. The Notice of Publication will then be published in the county's official legal newspaper, the Daily Herald, four times (usually four weeks in a row). The Respondent will then have 60 days from the first date of publication to file an Answer if s/he wants to contest the case.

To be on the safe side, you should also mail a set of all the papers, called the "service copy," to the Respondent's last known address. Be sure to put enough postage on it, and be sure to list a return address so that the post office can return it to you if they are unable to deliver it.

After the Notice of Publication has been published all four times, you should receive an Affidavit of Publication from the Daily Herald, the county's official legal newspaper, stating that publication is complete. You must either file this Affidavit of Publication with the Clerk of Court's office or else bring it with you to your hearing in order to prove that service by publication has been completed. Usually the judge will then sign the Order Perfecting Service (part of the three-part form listed above) at the hearing, showing that the Court has reviewed the service and finds that it was done properly.

If you later find out where the Respondent lives or works (before the case is over), you should arrange for the Sheriff's Department to serve the Respondent or for the Respondent to acknowledge service.

STEP 7: MEDIATION (contested cases only)

After you have filed your case, and the Respondent has been properly served, if you and your spouse cannot agree on all the issues in your divorce, you are ready for the next step, which is mediation

- For all contested domestic relations cases, complete and submit the Domestic Relations Initiation Form and Domestic Relations Screening Form to the ADR Office. These forms are available by calling the ADR Office 770-288-8448 or online at www.adr6th.org.
- Once the paperwork has been received by the ADR Office, the case will be screened to determine if it is appropriate for mediation. If for some reason the case is not appropriate, it will be released from the mediation requirement. Otherwise, it will be scheduled for a mediation session.
- Mediation is mandatory for all contested cases. Failure to appear at a scheduled mediation session may result in fines and other court sanctions.
- Once the mediation requirement has been met, a Release for Hearing will be forwarded to the Court and a copy mailed to all parties. Now you may conclude your case in one of two ways: requesting that judgment be granted without a hearing by filing a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (meaning that if all your paperwork is correct and complete, the judge will sign the final divorce order without you having to come to court), or by requesting a final hearing date where you will come to court and appear before the judge.

STEP 8-A: HEARINGS – IF NECESSARY

After you received your Release for Hearing, or if your case is uncontested and you have filed your case and the Respondent has been properly served, you are ready for the next step, which is either a temporary hearing (called a Rule Nisi) or the final hearing.

- Temporary Hearing (Rule Nisi)

A temporary hearing is not required. However, if your case will not be ready for a final hearing (because you do not have a signed agreement and do not expect to have one soon), there may be issues that need to be decided on a temporary basis before the final hearing. In that situation, you may ask the Court to schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing. In a divorce without minor children, temporary issues may include alimony, living arrangements, use of an automobile, or who is responsible for certain payments while the divorce is pending.

To schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing, you should complete a Rule Nisi form which has its own separate instructions. If you know you want a temporary hearing when you are getting ready to file your divorce case, you can copy, sort, and file the Rule Nisi form with your other paperwork. (See steps 3, 4, and 5 above). After your case is filed with the Clerk's Office, you should take the original copy of the Rule Nisi and at least one copy to the office of the judge assigned to your case. The judge's staff will schedule a date for the Rule Nisi and fill out that part of the Rule Nisi form

- Final Hearing

- With a Signed and Notarized Settlement Agreement

If you have a signed Settlement Agreement, you may arrange to have the final hearing take place any time at least 31 days after the Respondent was personally served (or the Acknowledgment of Service was filed with the Clerk). Most of the judges and other court personnel call this type of hearing an "uncontested" divorce hearing. The judges schedule them in different ways. You should check with the staff for the judge assigned to your case to find out how that particular judge schedules these hearings.

If the Respondent signed the form called Acknowledgement of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case, then you are not required to give the Respondent notice of the date and time of the final hearing.

If the Respondent signed the other Acknowledgement of Service form (which does not waive the right to notice of the hearing), then you should mail a notice to the Respondent, telling the date, time, and place of the final hearing. Then, you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk's Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Respondent).

- Without a Signed Settlement Agreement

If you do not have a signed Settlement Agreement, then your final hearing may take place any time at least 46 days after the Respondent was personally served (or the Acknowledgment of Service was filed with the Clerk). If the service was by publication, the hearing may take place any time after 61 days from the date of the first publication. The judges schedule these final hearings in different ways. You should check with the staff for the judge assigned to your case, and make sure you make it clear to them that there is not a signed settlement agreement.

Sometimes the Clerk's office or judge's staff will mail notice of the hearing date to both parties. However, to be on the safe side, you should also mail a copy of the hearing notice to the Respondent. Then, you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk's Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Respondent).

- Before the Hearing Date

Whether for a temporary or final hearing, you must prepare your case to be presented to the Court before your hearing dates. You are your main witness. You must also gather other evidence (such as documents and photographs), bring it all with you to the courtroom (do not leave it at home or in the car), and you must arrange for any other witnesses that you want to have testify at the hearing. You must also prepare the proper documents to be provided to the judge at the hearing.

For a temporary hearing, you may use Affidavits from witnesses, so that they do not have to testify in person. However, there are special procedures for this. See Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.5.

At the final hearing, Affidavits are not proper evidence. Your witnesses (if any) must testify in person at the hearing.

It would be very beneficial to talk to a lawyer about the hearing to learn more about how to present your case.

STEP 8-B: POSSIBLE ALTERNATIVE TO A FINAL HEARING: JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

Some judges will finalize a divorce action without requiring you to come to court for a final hearing. A final divorce judgment obtained in this way is done by filing a document called a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. Judgment on the pleadings will be granted if you have filed the motion for it AND 1) the Respondent is not contesting the case, 2) you have fully and correctly prepared all the required documents, 3) all the originals of every document have been properly signed, notarized (if required), and filed with the Clerk of Superior Court, and 4) proper service has been made on the Respondent. However, a hearing will be required if 1) the case is contested, 2) any one of the documents has not been properly filled out, signed, notarized (if required), or filed, or 3) the judge needs further information before s/he can decide your case. Therefore, include the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings just in case the judge can grant judgment without hearing the case. It could save you a lot of time and hassle.
